STILL THEY COME.

Some Brown County Converts to the People's Party.

Last week we published a list of a few Kansans and others who had cast their lot with the People's party. Below we give some nearer home who will vote with that party this fall.

H. F. Mellenbruch, of Walnut township, one of the most progressive Democrats in Brown county, announced some weeks ago through his regular weekly correspondence in the Democrat that he had decided to affiliate with the Populists. He was a delegate to their last county convention, and was sent as a delegate to the congressional convention.

Fred Zimmerman, one of the best informed of Brown county's many excellent German citizens, will vote the Populist ticket this fall for the first time. The suffrage plank in the platform did it, and yet we are told that the Germans are against woman suffrage. Mr. Zimmerman makes one exception, and will vote for Maj. Morrill on account of personal friendship. Mr. Zimmerman has always been a Republican.

James Hudgens, member of the Democratic county central committee from Baker precinct, says, "I attended the last Democratic convention with reluctance. I do not intend to go again. I indorse the change the Democrat has made, and if I were in politics would help you in the fight."

John A. McGuire, a former Republican, says: "I said that if the Populists declared for woman suffrage I would vote their ticket. I meant it."

Col. E. Bierer, who has been prominent in Democratic circles for nearly 20 years, and has made the race for congress twice on that ticket in this district, comes out squarely for the Populist ticket.

Cy. Simmons, Democratic central committeeman from Hiawatha township, strikes out squarely, as he always does. He says, "I have made up my mind to vote for Lewelling."

Jack Hall, one of the most popular conductors on the Missouri Pacific, says he has tried both Republicans and Democrats, but that this time he will vote with the Populists.

John Green, of Everest, has been coming to Democratic conventions for years, and was the Democratic nominee for clerk of the district court four years ago. This year he was a delegate to the Populist county convention.

Frank McConnell, of the Kentner-McConnell Drug Company, was born and raised a Republican. He says: "I have been studying these questions. My sympathies are all with the Populists, and I shall vote that ticket."

Morris Curl says: "Since the Populists have declared for woman suffrage, I shall vote the ticket." Mr. Curl is a prosperous farmer of Mission township, and has always been a Republican.—Hiawatha Democrat.

Good Citizenship.

A Kansas City, Kansas, minister preached yesterday on the Christian at the primary and called on his flock to attend primaries. Until the preacher's advice is heeded, not merely in Wyandotte county, but all over the nation, there will be little improvement in the administration of affairs. The trouble just now is that the Christian lays aside his precepts and forgets his great example when he enters the voting booth. The "good fellow" gets his vote and the "slick politician" gets his endorsement. He helps his party in the hope that some day his party may help him, and lets his "country and his God" shift for themselves; as a result, a corporation of office-holders runs the land, and the chief end of man is to get in office or stay in office for the emoluments of office, while public business goes from bad to worse. Christianity in politics means good citizenship, and nothing else.—Kansas City Star.

David Overmyer was a Republican representative from Shawnee county in 1885, ran for congress in 1888 on the Democratic ticket, was a fusion candidate for governor in 1890, was a fusion candidate for congressman-at-large in 1892 but stumped the state for the Republicans because he was not nominated, and is now running for governor on a Democrat ticket this fall to elect Morrill.—Paola Times.

The voters of Kansas will not forget as they go through the campaign that Dawes, the Republican nominee for attorney general, knew so little law that he was compelled to plead ignorance and ask for mercy to keep from being incarcerated in jail for contempt of court in the year of our Lord 1894.—Paola Times.

If Grown in Texas, It's Good.

The Texas coast country vies with California in raising pears, grapes and strawberries. The 1893 record of H. M. Stringfellow, Hitchcock, Tex., who raised nearly $6,000 worth of pears from 13 acres, can be duplicated by you. G. T. Nicholson, G. P. A., Topeka, Kas., will be glad to furnish without charge an illustrated pamphlet telling about Texas.

YOUR FUTURE

IS IN YOUR OWN HAND.

Palmistry assumes to tell what the lines in your hand indicate. It will amuse you, if nothing more. The above diagram almost explains itself. The length of the LINE OF LIFE indicates probable age to which you will live. Each BRACELET gives you thirty years. Well-marked LINE OF HEAD denotes brain power; clear LINE OF FORTUNE, fame or riches. Both combined mean success in life; but you must keep up with modern ideas to win it. You will find plenty of these in Demorest's Family Magazine, so attractively presented that every member of the family is entertained. It is a dozen magazines in one. A CLEAR LINE OF HEART bespeaks tenderness; a straight LINE OF FATE, peaceful life; the reverse if crooked. A well-defined LINE OF HEALTH spares you doctors' bills; so will the health hints in Demorest's. No other magazine publishes so many stories to interest the home circle. You will be subject to extremes of high spirits or despondency if you have the GIRDLE OF VENUS well marked; keep up your spirits by having Demorest's Magazine to read. By subscribing to it for 1894 you will receive a gallery of exquisite works of art of great value, besides the superb premium picture, 17x22 inches, "I'm a Daisy!" which is almost a real baby, and equal to the original oil painting which cost $300; and you will have a magazine that cannot be equaled by any in the world for its beautiful illustrations and subject matter, that will keep you posted on all the topics of the day, and all the fads, and different items of interest about the household, besides furnishing interesting reading matter, both grave and gay, for the whole family; and while Demorest's is not a fashion magazine, its fashion pages are perfect, and you get with free of cost, all the patterns you wish to use during the year, and in any size you choose. Send in your subscription at once, only $2.00, and you will really get over $25.00 in value. Address the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th St., New York. If you are unacquainted with the Magazine, send for a specimen copy. A large QUADRANGLE means honesty; a large TRIANGLE, generosity; long FIRST DIVISION OF THUMB, strong will; LONG SECOND DIVISION, reasoning faculty. The MOUNT OF JUPITER betokens ambition; that of SATURN, prudence; the SUN, love of splendor; MARS, courage; MOON, imagination; VENUS, love of pleasure; and MERCURY, intelligence. Take our advice as above and you will be sure to possess the last and most valuable quality.
